

CONNECTICUT STATE POLICE TROOPERS AT TROOP 'G' TO CONDUCT SPOT CHECKS

The Connecticut State police, Troop G in Bridgeport and Stratford Police Department will conduct a DUI spot check on the evening of Saturday, May 8th, 2004. The sobriety checkpoints are planned to take place in the Town of Stratford along the I-95 corridor. Troopers and Officers plan on intensifying their Driving while intoxicated enforcement during this period. In addition to emphasis on detecting drivers who under the influence, Troopers and Officers will also be enforcing the state's seatbelt laws and other motor vehicle violations.
